

HABITAT FOR HUMANITY

OF THE CHESAPEAKE

Seeking to put God's love into action,
Habitat for Humanity brings people together to build homes, communities and hope.

Habitat Chesapeake's volunteers organized a home revitalization in Kenilworth Park, Maryland to create a safe and secure living environment in their community.

Pictured to the left are Adam Ariosa, CFP® & AAMS® at Synergy Financial Group, with his father, Michael Ariosa.

The two dedicated their time to help fix up this home which will be donated later in the year.
